

PRESS STATEMENT FOR EARTHQUAKE EVENT (7 February 2010)

Southwestern Ryukyu Islands, Japan

A strong earthquake with a magnitude of 6.2 on the Richter Scale occurred over the Southwestern Ryukyu Islands, Japan at 2.10 pm. The epicenter is located at 23.5° North and 123.7° East, 275 km southeast of Taipei, Taiwan and 1987 km northeast of Kudat, Sabah.

No Tsunami Threat to Malaysia.

Malaysian Meteorological Department
MINISTRY OF SCIENCE TECHNOLOGY AND INNOVATION
7 February 2010, 2.30 p.m.